

Annual Report ENOTHE board and members 2016-2017

Strategic Area 1: Education
To support, develop and improve educational programs for European occupational therapists that are comparable, of high quality, relevant and responsive to changes in society To promote OT within European Higher Education systems in all three educational cycles, research and innovation.	Emerging Fields &amp; Fieldwork projects:	Project by and for members: Occupation Based Transformation ICC@home co-pilot Citizenship: publications, educational material &amp; conferences AM Zagreb: Keynote about Technology by Claire Clark
	Teaching competences	AM Zagreb: Keynote on Teaching competences by Marleen Kaijen AM Zagreb: Workshops on teaching competences
Strategic Area 2: Partnerships &amp; OT Evidence
Influence strategic partnerships by demonstrating the OT evidence and the value of occupation in addressing European Health and Societal Issues.	Internal partnerships	Nordplus in Vilnius 1st International Scientific Conference on Occupational Therapy. "Present state and future prospects" Bacau, Rumania. Exploration of alternative membership fee structures Workshop meet and greet and other workshops on curriculum development AM Zagreb '17
	External partnerships	Two meetings with COEHRE board to discuss collaboration
	Dissemination	Disseminating research by ENOTHE project groups at European Occupational Science

	research	conference.  Disseminating research by ROTOS at EOS.
	Political alliances	Publication British Journal of Occupational Therapy by the President of COTEC & ENOTHE. Title: Using evidence-based practice and research in political arenas.
Strategic Area 3: SUSTAINABLE NETWORK ORGANISATION
Continue to work towards the development of a sustainable network organisation with improving membership engagement comprising all European regions	Communication Strategies:	Newsletters with and for member.  Website regularly updates.  Increasing use of social media.  Collaboration among members: Connecting members who need partners in OT curriculum development.  Collaborating with SPOT Europe  Project #OT power
	Public relations	New brand used in all publications  OT4OT at World Occupational Therapy Day: 2 keynotes live during AM Zagreb  Life stream of the AM Zagreb
	Governance	Exploring legal entity status for ENOTHE to become an organisation in its own right, ensuring ENOTHE has a presence and voice in Europe
	Administration	Chasing members to stay connected by paying their fees

		FARG into effect to review finances of ENOTHE ENOTHE office four year service level contract ends in May 2018. Board exploring alternative new hosts for the ENOTHE Office (advertisement circulated to members and beyond)
Strategic Area 4: OT-EU Umbrella
To collaborate with the Council of Occupational Therapists for the European Countries (COTEC) to strengthen the impact of occupational therapy in Europe	Organisation	Establishing OT-EU in collaboration with COTEC First step: Change ENOTHE into a legal status i.e. into a registered association. Becoming a legal entity in its own right to become an equal partner under the OT-EU umbrella
	Research Network	Development of ROTOS in effect
	Joint actions	OT-EU Refugee Expert group OT-EU Development of ROTOS 4 yearly OT-EU conference
	Political Alliances	Exploring common office for ENOTHE and COTEC Attendance to EOS conference in Hildesheim, Workshop about Research network to represent ROTOS