

Privacy Policy

This website and all other ENOTHE literature are owned and operated by the European Network of Occupational Therapy in Higher Education (ENOTHE), a non-governmental organisation registered under Austrian Law. The organisation's address is Holmeistergasse 7 9 /2/1, A - 1210, Austria.

1. Introduction

ENOTHE is committed to protecting your personal information and respecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy sets out the basis on which any personal data that we collect from or about you, or that you provide to us, will be processed by us. For the purpose of General Data Protection Regulation (the GDPR) the data controller is ENOTHE. We may update the Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes we make in the future will be posted on our website www.enothe.eu

2. Data Protection Contact

The contact details of our administrator for any data protection queries is as follows: Email: info@enothe.eu

3. Data Protection Principles

We will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any other way that is incompatible with those purposes
- Relevant to the purposes that we have told you about and limited only to those purposes
- Accurate and kept up to date
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about
- Kept securely

4. Particulars of Processing

We process personal data about prospective members who join as institutions and individuals and use the on-line shop, teachers, students and practitioners who submit newsletter articles, project proposals, abstracts, keynote speakers who attend the ENOTHE Annual Meetings which are held each year.

5. Your Rights as a Data Subject

The General Data Protection Regulation provides the following rights (subject to some exemptions):

- The right to request access to the personal data that we hold about you
- The right to request rectification of the personal data that we hold about you
- The right to request erasure of the personal data that we hold about you
- The right to request restriction of processing about you
- The right to object to processing
- The right to data portability

If at any point you believe the information, we process on you is incorrect, incomplete or out of date then please let us know and we will make sure that your data is corrected. If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal data, you can contact the Administrator using the contact details above. If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are processing your personal data not in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

6. How we will use the information about you

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal information in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to perform the contract, we have entered into with you
- Where we need to comply with legal obligation
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests

We may also use your personal information in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

- Where we need to protect your interests (or someone else's interests)
- Where it is needed in the public interest or for official purposes

We will generally process your personal data for contractual necessity in providing Annual Meeting registration event purposes and those who wish to become individual ENOTHE members. We may also use personal information for additional relevant and related purposes where you might reasonably expect us to do so, where the benefits of doing so are not outweighed by your own interests or fundamental rights or freedoms. This may include:

- To maintain our records and other administrative purposes, including updating your details and preferences
- To assist with queries, complaints and dispute resolution
- Communications related to Annual Meetings or similar events to assist in evaluations
- To assist with upholding our Association Constitution and taking action in cases where there has been a breach of rules or code of ethics

We will ask your direct consent if we intend to use your personal data for marketing purposes. Where the processing of personal data is based on your having given consent, you have the right as a data subject to withdraw that consent at any time. If you wish to invoke this right, please notify the Administrator using the contact details above.

You have a right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority the Office of Information Commissioner.

7. Recipients of Data

We may use service providers to help us provide you with our services. Personal data may be transferred to such a service provider, who will act for or on our behalf, for further processing in accordance with the purpose(s) for which the data were originally collected or may otherwise be lawfully processed.

Such third parties have contracted with us as data processors under the requirements in the GDPR. They are contractually bound to only use the personal data for the agreed purpose(s). Relevant persons working for these third parties will have access to your personal data under the terms of the data processor contract, but only to the extent necessary to perform their services for us.

These data processors agree to implement reasonable contractual and technical protections, to keep your data confidential, not sell your personal data to third parties and not to disclose your personal data to third parties except as may be required by law, as permitted by us or stated in this Privacy

Policy. In appropriate circumstances we may disclose data to authorised bodies as required by law.
