

OT-Europe Interest Group Displaced Persons

VIRTUAL STUDENT WORKSHOP

A free event for students, by students!

Occupational Therapy
Europe

April 22, 2021
16:00-19:00 CET

ZOOM link will be shared after pre-registration

EXISTING WORK AND PRACTICE EXAMPLES

- OT-Europe Interest Group

Temple Moore, Kim Roos, Sandra Schiller, Nadine Blankvoort (United States, Switzerland, Germany, The Netherlands)

- InterAct - Interdisciplinary cooperation in Psychosocial interventions

Sarah Scheer (Berlin, Germany)

Clinical Placement with non-accompanied minors

Rafaella Rafael, Elina Zevlari and Theklia
Kyriacou (Larnaca, Cyprus)

Exploring the specific interventions used by OT's working with displaced persons - A brief presentation of my Bachelor's thesis

Lynn Hames (Brussels, Belgium)

- Shaping parallel worlds: A miniethnographic case study on the impact of local governance on the occupational possibilities of a migrant (ex)sex worker.
Suné van der Merwe (Nürnberg, Germany)

- A qualitative critical review: exploring the experiences of meaningful occupations amongst forcibly displaced people

Amy Brennan (Glasgow, Scotland)

WORKSHOPS & BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Workshop 1:

Getting you started: How to approach Occupational Therapy / Occupational Science research with displaced groups

Suné van der Merwe; Lynn Hames

Workshop 2:

Which challenges does work with displaced persons provide to current OT practice?

Sandra Schiller; Christos Petridis;
Irene Papastavrou; Christiana Charalambous.

Workshop 3:

How do you deal with your own feelings during this work?

Kim Roos, Nadine Blankvoort

Workshop 4:

Which essential life skills do people need when they come into a new culture?

Marina Georgiadou, Temple Moore

REGISTRATION:

REGISTRATION FORM

