

HANNEKE VAN BRUGGEN LECTURE NOMINATION INFORMATION

The Hanneke van Bruggen Lecture was created at the 16th Annual ENOTHE 2010 Meeting at Stockholm, Sweden, in honour of Hanneke Van Bruggen then, the outgoing Director of ENOTHE. In creating the Hanneke van Bruggen Lecture, the ENOTHE board wished to recognise and honour Hanneke Van Bruggen for her unending dedication and outstanding work in promoting the development of occupational therapy higher education programmes in Europe and internationally.

The Hanneke van Bruggen Lecture is held once a year during the ENOTHE Annual Meeting and is awarded to an Occupational Therapist working in Europe. Other professionals that advocate the Occupational Therapy education development are more than welcome to be invited for this honour.

Regulations

- The candidate (nominee) should be nominated by at least two (2) ENOTHE member institutes (nominators: proposer and seconder);
- The nominee should agree to the nomination;
- The proposed lecture should address at least two of the decision criteria. It is preferable that the proposed lecture fits the theme(s) of the annual meeting;
- Only nominations with all supporting documentation will be considered;
- Nominations sent outside the specified time period will not be considered.

Decision Criteria

The ENOTHE Board will use the following criteria to decide upon the Hanneke van Bruggen lecturer nominations:

- The impact on occupational therapy development through educational initiatives;
- Inclusion of diverse perspectives and diversity in local, national or international contexts;
- Innovation in occupational therapy education or occupational science education

Accepted nominee compensation

Travel expenses and two nights of accommodation will be paid by ENOTHE.

The flight and accommodation can be booked through Enothe after receiving the nominee confirmation of acceptance of the award.

Guidelines/Steps to nomination:

1. Contact the proposed nominee to make sure that the nomination is agreed upon;
2. Collect the detailed Curriculum Vitae of the nominee.
The curriculum vitae should cover the following areas (as appropriate): Professional Qualifications (Occupational Therapy) attained or currently being undertaken, Other Qualifications, Work Experience, Professional Interests/International Interests, Other skills and experience like presentation skills;
3. Written statement (max. 300 words) by the nominators in support of the nomination, giving reasons why the nominee deserves the honour of giving the Hanneke van Bruggen Lecture.
4. Complete the nomination form: fill and sign
5. Submit the nomination, by sending to info@enothe.eu until Saturday, April 15th 2023:
 - Nomination form signed and filled
 - Written statement of the nominators
 - Curriculum Vitae of the nominee